Dear Stand Alone

Queen Mary University of London's commitment to the Stand Alone pledge to support estranged students

I am writing as President and Principal of Queen Mary University of London (QMUL) to commit to Stand Alone's Pledge to support estranged students.

We recognise the barriers that estranged students can face accessing, and remaining in, higher education. QMUL already offers dedicated support to this group of students, including prospective students, in a number of key areas, and we have devised a plan to coordinate that work better and to develop further the provision we already offer.

We fully support this important initiative and look forward to working with Stand Alone.

Yours faithfully,

Professor Simon Gaskell
President and Principal
